

XM radio should be permitted to broadcast the same information as any other radio station. This includes local traffic and weather.